

#IndigenousReads at Uni Freiburg Summer 2021

#IndigenousReads

Your monthly book club dedicated to contemporary Indigenous literature! All sessions take place at 6pm CEST via Zoom. Copies are available to borrow, reserve yours today!

May 24

Winter Counts* by David Heska Wanbli Weiden

A groundbreaking thriller about a vigilante on a Native American reservation who embarks on a dangerous mission to track down the source of a heroin influx, and a brilliant meditation on power and violence.

June 28

Elatsoe* by Darcie Little Badger

Set in a version of our contemporary world where everyone knows ghosts, fairies, and vampires are real, this breathtaking debut novel combines mystery, horror, noir, ancestral knowledge, haunting illustrations, and fantasy elements.

July 26

There There* by Tommy Orange

The chorus of 12 voices tells of the plight of the urban Native American –grappling with a complex and painful history, with an inheritance of beauty and spirituality, with communion and sacrifice and heroism.

August 30

Black Sun* by Rebecca Roanhorse

Crafted with unforgettable characters, this epic adventure explores the decadence of power amidst the weight of history and the struggle of individuals swimming against the confines of society and their broken pasts.

Information, registration: Léna Remy-Kovach lenaremykovach@gmail.com